

HAZARD IDENTIFICATION AND RISK ASSESSMENT

Essential Skills for a Safe Workplace

Hazard Identification, Risk Assessment, and Control (HIRAC) is a critical process for any workplace that wants to ensure the health and safety of its employees. At GSRC Management, we offer a comprehensive HIRAC training course that is designed to provide your team with the essential skills and knowledge needed to identify and control hazards in the workplace.

Our course covers a wide range of topics, including:

- Understanding the legal requirements for HIRAC
- Identifying and assessing hazards in the workplace
- Developing and implementing control measures to manage risk
- Evaluating the effectiveness of control measures
- Reviewing and updating HIRAC processes

Our training is delivered by experienced professionals who are certified safety experts and can help your team understand the importance of HIRAC in creating a safe and healthy workplace.

Key Benefits:

- Keep your workplace safe and healthy: Our HIRAC training course is designed to help businesses prevent accidents, injuries, and illnesses by identifying and controlling workplace hazards.
- Compliance with regulations: Our course is compliant with national and international safety regulations and standards, ensuring that your business stays compliant and avoids fines and penalties.
- Reduce risks and costs: By implementing HIRAC processes, your business can reduce the risk of workplace accidents and incidents, as well as costs associated with insurance and liability claims.
- Empower your team: By providing your team with the knowledge and skills to identify and control hazards, you can empower them to take action and create a safer workplace.
